

Job Title: Senior Pharmacist

Reports To: Director, Vvsaol Investment Limited

Location: Kampala

Job Purpose:

Provide professional pharmacy technical support on behalf of Vvsaol in carrying out activities that include but not limited to managing the company's wholesale operations supplying medical consumables and equipment; ensuring all client specifications for medical products & equipment are accurately established and appropriate support rendered within given timelines.

Key Result Areas

- Under take pharmaceutical and medical equipment ordering in line with national guidelines & Ministry of Health/Agencies standard operating procedures on behalf of Vvsaol investments while ensuring accurate specification as per clientele contract are captured.
- Verify specifications of medical consumables and equipment from the clientele and ensure suppliers submit as per specifications.
- Supervise the supply chain from the ordering, procuring stage to verification of medical consumables and equipment for all Vvsaol Investments clientele.
- Manage Vvsaol Inventory Management system ensuring the system is accurate, and up to date and provides an information for comprehensive financial decision making
- Ensure that the SOPs for local production are strictly followed and adhered to as indicated in the worksheets for production.
- Lead in capacity building interventions through the implementation of learning /training needs assessments so to improve performance in pharmaceutical logistics services and supply chain management.
- Observe total quality management philosophy by upholding quality, safety and competitiveness of products and medical equipment.

Education and Professional qualifications

- Bachelor's Degree in Pharmacy.
- Post graduate qualification/ Masters related to pharmaceutical/ logistics management/ health management sciences/ general management

- Certificate of Practice in pharmacy
- Must be registered with the Pharmaceutical Society of Uganda (PSU)
- Strong understanding of the single window system.
- Certificate in logistics and procurement is an added advantage.

Skills, Knowledge and Abilities

- Knowledge of policies and regulations pertaining to pharmaceuticals
 - Knowledge of principles and practices of logistics and supply chain management with demonstrated experience in the Pharmaceutical Industry
 - Organisational and management skills
 - Excellent supervision and observation skills
 - Excellent communication (verbal & written) skills
 - Good presentation skills
 - Attention to detail.
 - Strong customer service abilities.
-

Experience:

- Minimum of 5 years' experience in a busy pharmaceutical company with at least 2 year in managerial position